

I have got a junk store on Water street the Cummings sawing mill, and all kinds of brass, etc., iron as, bottles, dry bones, from, folded papers. I have the market price for these articles in goods or in money.
I am glad to pay more for old junk any dealer there is around here, because I sell my old junk right at factory: if you send your orders.

P. O. Box 17, Norway, Me.

PART I.

After you readers of this adventure to the story of an old-time postoffice in this town last summer and all kinds of things, I recently received a letter from the depot and I was very surprised to find it was from a man who had been in the town for some time. He told me that he had seen me in the town when I was called for rice."

PART II.

And here I can prove that I was not in business last summer and that I had never been here. Well, I thought it best that I write the story, but I will conclude that I was not there when you called for rice."

PART III.

I did not know the old man because he was many things done by my father, who don't care whether they are or not, as long as they don't expect to be disappointed.

[illegible][illegible]

All of our stages are late nowadays.
 Joseph Sheadman of Foxcroft, who was killed by the death of his other William, seems to like this of the country. He has purchased a John Keene house near Spraguegene's home at the head of Long lake and will soon move his family to it ace.
 John Keene has moved to Naples.
 Will Heath brings to the village the best maple syrup that we have seen this season.
 As we are informed several of our young girls and girls par took of an oyster stew and maple syrup in a camp last short distance out on the Norway stage and on Wednesday evening.
 Alex. Mr. Fitz is taking a vacation of six weeks, so there was no meeting at the Cong'l church on Sunday.
 A female Irish from Grand Rapids, who has been sick at Mrs. M. A. Lombard's, remains very sick, seemingly without any change, with temperature registering from 101 to 102½.
 William Briggs, the candy drummer, was out Sunday at his home.
 Charles Harmon's little boy's toe has been torn together and is as good as a toe as the other foot has.
 Sprague Keene received a note from Edith Paris, Saturday, saying that Harold Burnham was dangerously sick.
 Mrs. Sophronia Libby while cutting a quilt one day last week nearly cut her finger off.
 Edith Tracy has gone to Chatham to visit for Mr. Andrews, who for the past year has run the Summitt House.
 Tuesday last Mr. Muller started out to her cream. He stopped at Mr. Twitch-er's and while there his horse started ran to the village, but fortunately and no cream abroad.
 William Briggs and Fanny Caswell are going into Portland Saturday, the former to be gone a week or so after spring business, the latter to spend Easter.
 Florence Welts is going to Lynn to visit.
 Mrs. Weeman and wife of Sebago are going to the Summitt Spring for the coming year.
 Cong'l Circle Friday night.
 Mrs. Whipple of Worcester is visiting her uncle's, Mr. Bailey's.
 Lincoln Walker has been to Norway traded his horses for a heavier pair.
 Mrs. Frank Walney and daughter are visiting here, her daughter, Lewis Briggs, the past week.
 Mrs. Rowe has had an operation performed on his hip and is doing nicely.
